

Cat Spotted Meowing Downtown

A cat was spotted downtown meowing near a local restaurant. Sources say the cat was grey with brown eyes, and was very fluffy.

This has been the third in a string of incidents related to cats meowing throughout the town. According to a local storeowner, the cat was seen laying on top of a HP Officejet Pro 6978.

New Restaurant Opened In Town

Sources say a new restaurant is opening up soon in the city, as construction finally completed in August.

A resident nearby the new restaurant had this to say, “It's been under construction for such a long time, and since they finished work in August, they've been working hard to start business immediately.”
